

“But it should be easier. I went to the director of [my sport] for the county and I asked that question. I said, ‘What’s next for me - because I’m the top female coach in this county...I’m willing to put in the work.’” Tina